- Statutory rape differs from other types of rape.
- Statutory rape can involve underage participants who have willingly engaged in the act.
- Those who are under the age of consent cannot legally consent to sex.
- So, the act is considered a crime.

Age of Consent

- The age of consent is the age at which someone can legally agree to be involved in sex.
- This age varies from state to state.
- Different states set the age of consent at 16 years, while others set it at 17 or 18.

Factors Affecting the Charges and Penalties

- The two main factors that affect the penalties for statutory rape include:
 - The age of the victim
 - The age difference between victim and perpetrator
- Other factors include the number of prior sex offenses committed by the accused, involvement of drugs or alcohol etc.
